

A child is considered to have additional needs if they have significant learning difficulties in comparison to their peers which mean they need additional special attention or if a child has a disability that hinders or prevents the child from using educational facilities generally provided for the same age range. It is possible to accommodate children in wheelchairs.

Children may have EAL, (English as an additional language). In these cases, Nippertime would aim to adjust promote access to the environment with the guidance from Race Equality and Minority Achievement, (REMA), and meetings with the parents.

Nippertime's policy in relation to children who experience difficulties in learning or in adapting to the physical, social, or behavioural demands of the nursery environment is described below. We value and acknowledge children's individuality whilst promoting and valuing diversity and differences. It is important that children learn to feel good about themselves and value and respect others.

Nippertime recognises the right of each individual child, including those with additional needs, to an appropriate quality under 5's experience, which combines care and learning through play and education.

Nippertime is sensitive to the needs and feelings of children with additional needs and their families and will ensure individual needs are recognised and addressed. Parents/carers will be involved at every stage and in any plans that are made to meet a child's individual additional needs. Parents/carers discuss their child's routines, likes and dislikes as well as any other professionals involved with the child to form a detailed picture.

Resources are available within the environment enabling children to access resources of their choice. Nippertime provides resources to aid children with additional needs. We have limited spaces to give 1 to 1 support whilst a child is at Nippertime.

To support bilingual families, information regarding the setting can be given in verbal/written format. The parents can decide which format they would prefer.

Equality of opportunity for all children is essential and it is important that children with special needs have the opportunity of learning alongside their peers. For this reason, the special educational needs of children will normally be met in the setting.

If your child has additional needs of any kind, we will discuss

- how the child and parent can be helped
- · how staff can be helped
- what advice and practical help we can get from outside agencies
- what adaptations need to be made
- how we can support and help the parent
- what behavioural or educational plan needs to be devised, with outside agency help, tailored to each individual child

Samantha Gibbins is the Inclusion Liaison Officer who is available for consultation and advice. Sam is qualified as a level 3 Early Years SEN coordinator.

The Disability and the Equality Act 2010 aims to end the discrimination that many disabled people face. This Act has been significantly extended, including by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005. It now gives disabled people rights in the areas of:

- employment
- education
- access to goods, facilities, and services, including larger private clubs and land-based transport
- buying or renting land or property, including making it easier for disabled people to rent property and for tenants to make disability-related adaptations
- functions on public bodies, for example, issuing of licenses

The Act requires public bodies to promote equality of opportunity for disabled people. It also allows the government to set minimum standards so that disabled people can use public transport easily.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITY (SEND)

Sam Gibbins is the Inclusion Liaison Officer who is available for consultation and advice and is qualified as a level 3 Early Years SEN coordinator. Sam works alongside the child mentor to ensure that accurate records are kept and develops partnerships with other professionals and the family.

We aim to give a particular welcome to children and families with additional needs, adapting our provisions and resources as necessary, and offering additional support if required to help each child have full access to the full early years' curriculum.

Children are monitored closely when they join Nippertime to identify a child's needs. If additional needs are highlighted a meeting is arranged with the parents to discuss their child's needs.

Nippertime can apply for Early Intervention Funding, (EIF), to ensure the child's needs are met. The money may be used to buy resources or employ additional staff.

Response to Local Offer Questions

When the Children and Families Bill becomes enacted in 2014 local authorities will be required to publish and keep under review information from services that expect to be available for children and young people with SEND aged 0-25. The intention of this local offer is to improve choice and transparency for families. From the Local Offer parents and carers will know what they can reasonably expect from their local area. It will also be an important resource for professionals in understanding the range of services and provision in the local area.
